Enemy Identification Chart

This is a monster identification chart that will help you as you play Final Fantasy. Included is each monster's full name as well as each monster's vital statistics. Use this information to plan your battle strategies. Pay careful attention to the "Monster's Hit Points" section. It will help you determine whether or not you will be able to defeat a group of enemies. If you find a particular enemy's weakness, you may wish to add it to the chart for future reference.

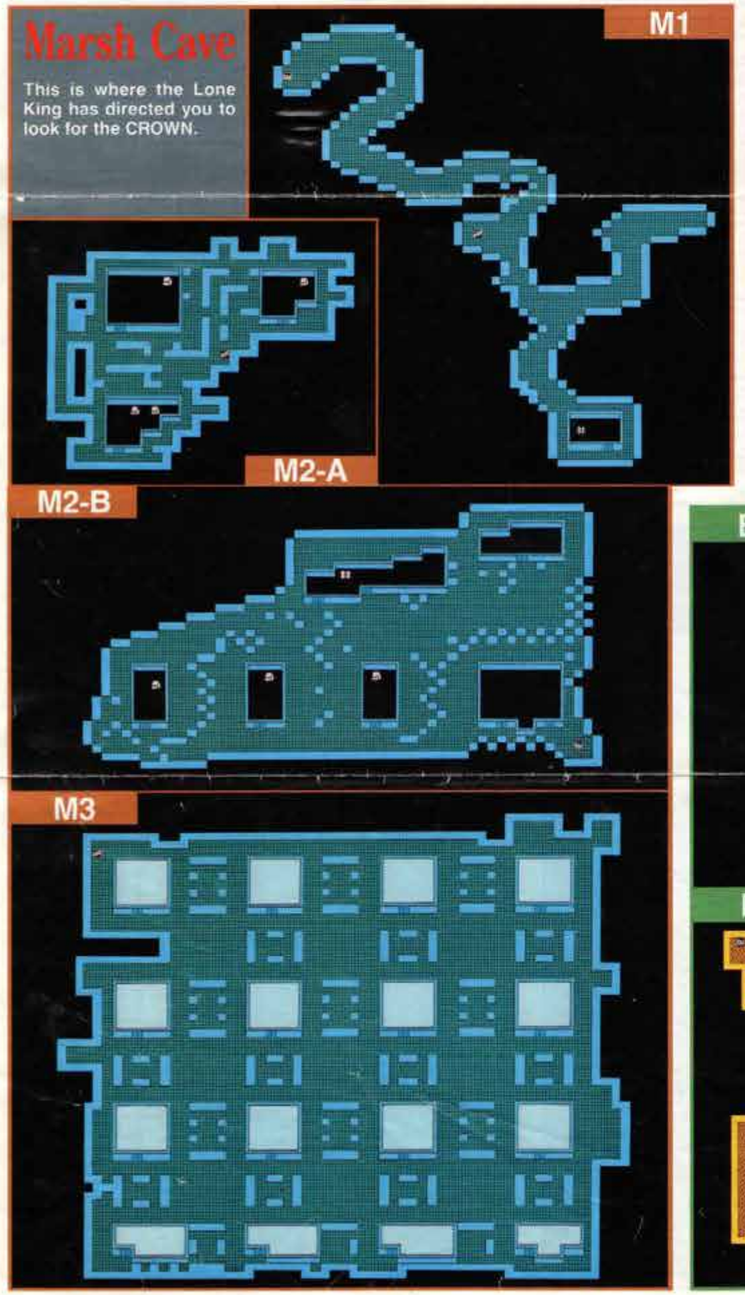
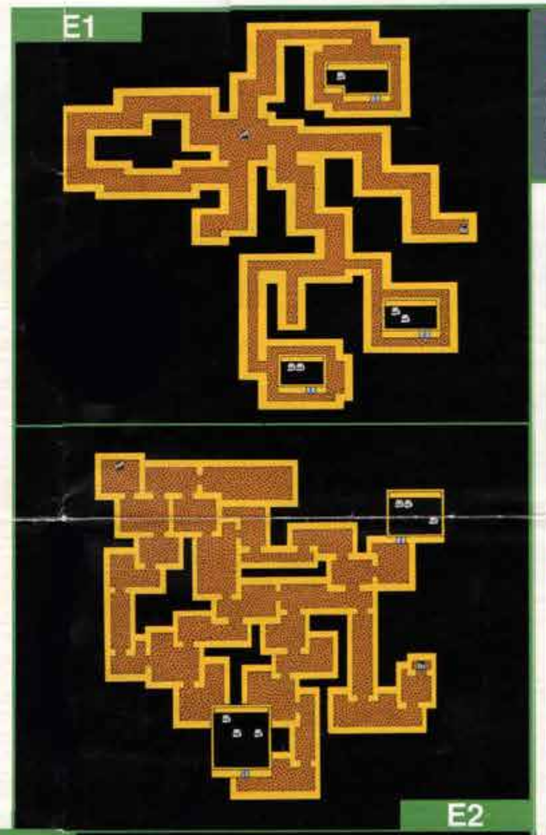
FINAL FANTASY™ Dungeon Maps

These maps will help you get through some of the treacherous dungeons in Final Fantasy.

Marsh Cave

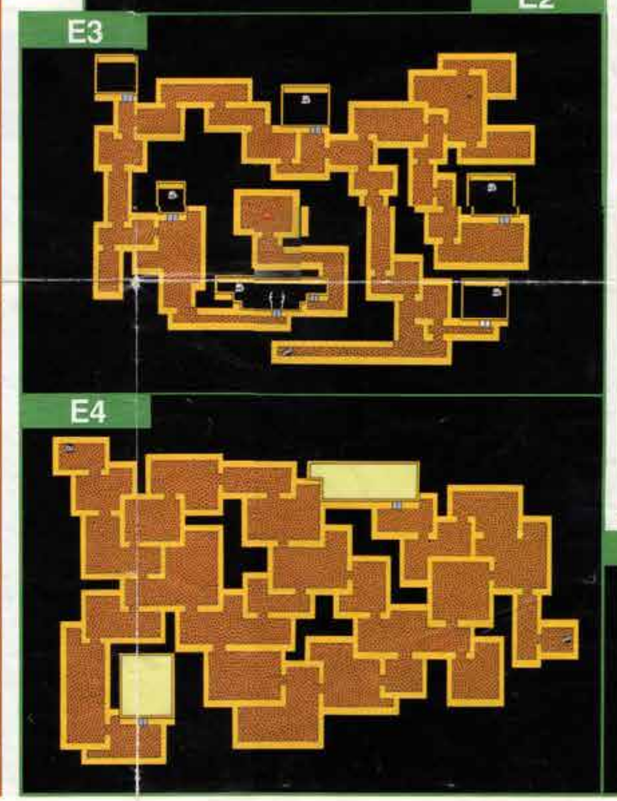
This is where the Lone King has directed you to look for the CROWN.





Earth Cave

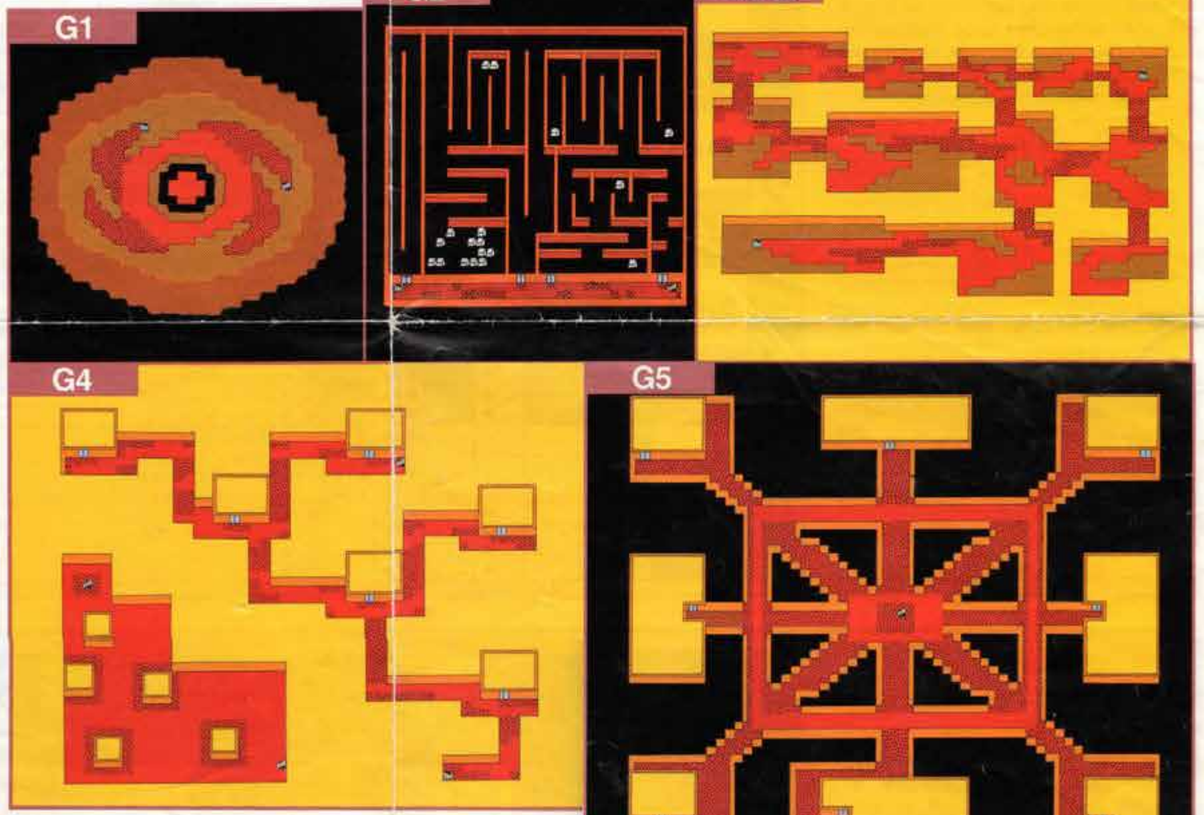
The residents of Melmond said that this is the source of the earth's rotting. You'll battle the Earth Fiend here.

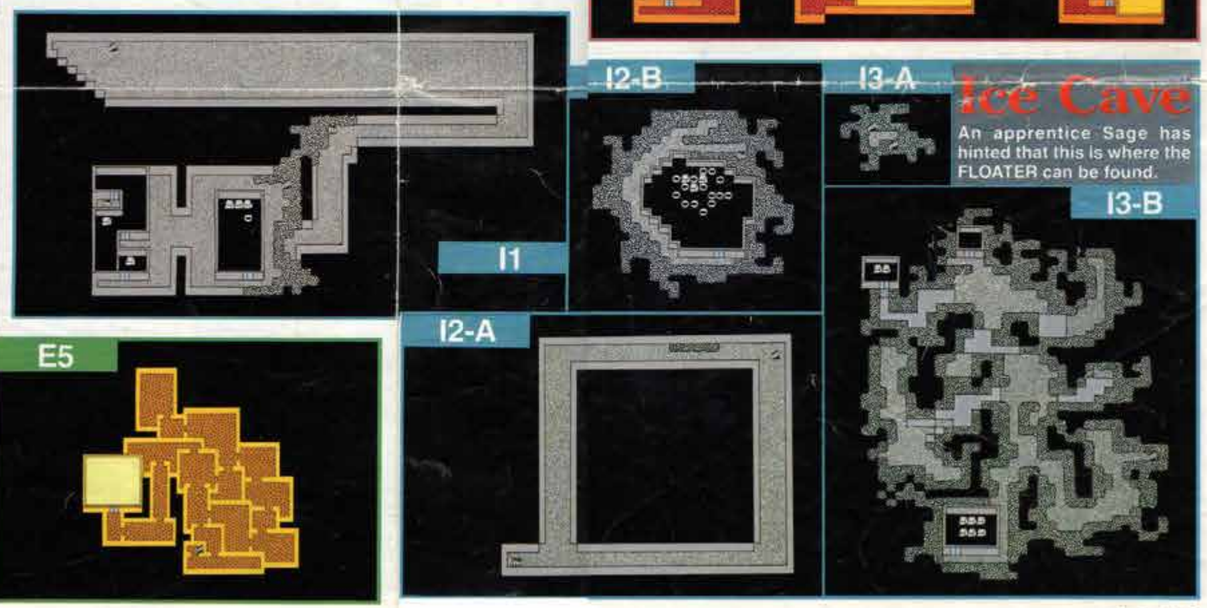


Gurgu Volcano

Fire Cave

According to the Sages in the town of Crescent Lake, this is where the Fire Fiend can be found.





Ice Cave

An apprentice Sage has hinted that this is where the FLOATER can be found.

Magic

Use this chart for handy reference when making determinations as to what spells you will want to buy. If a spell exists that your Warrior can use after Class Change, make sure to leave a space open for that spell in that magician's inventory.

AFFECTS

ONE ALLY	This spell will affect the Light Warrior of your choice.
ALLY PARTY	This spell will affect all 4 Light Warriors.
CASTER	This spell will only affect the magician who cast it.
ONE ENEMY	This spell will affect only one member of the enemy party.
ENEMY PARTY	This spell will affect the entire enemy party.

Armor

Use this chart in determining which armor to purchase, to EQUIP, and which to sell as surplus. NOTE: Before selling any armor that you can't EQUIP determine if it can be used later after Class Change, or possibly immediately as an ITEM.
